WISH YOU WERE HERE....

Lapland

EXCLUSIVE TO THE MET TRAVEL CLUB

Meet Santa on the frostiest day trip ever! Follow the candlelight through the snowy pine trees to try reindeer driving, husky sleigh rides, snowmobiling, family sledging and mini-skidoo rides, before thawing your fingers and toes around the campfire, with warm juice and tasty gingerbread.

A magical mystery tour

Let the friendly elves greet you and take you to Santa's Secret Grotto, where you'll receive your own Lappish passport, a special keepsake to take home with you.

Warm and cosy

Visit the dressing room, where you will be wrapped from head to toe in a snug outfit to help you keep warm in the snow.

Meet Old Man Reindeer

Listen to stories as you learn about the Arctic Circle crossing ceremony.

Meet the man himself

Santa's a busy man, but he's made time to meet you and your new friends on your special day. Ask the Elves how to greet him in Finnish and receive a super present.

Elf School

its better than school at home! Learn all the secrets of Santa's famous little helpers before your elf graduation.

Time for tea

Try all of Santa's favourite dishes.

Santa's Gift Shop

This is your chance to buy Christmas presents for all your friends at home.

Elf Bakery

Decorate ginger bread cookies with the help of the elves. Who will make the coolest cookie?

Santa's Post Office

Write home to let your friends know all about Santa's beard, your favourite elf and the fuzzy husky dogs.

Flying Home

Sleepy and filled with magical stories to tell your friends and family, let Santa's elves take you to the airport, ready to fly home

Day Trip on the 20th December
